

New York State Chimney Sweep Guild 2014 Annual Summer Workshop Seminar offerings

Thursday 7/24/2014

-Shawn Simboli Memorial Golf Tournament

This has become an annual tradition. Join fellow sweeps, masons, suppliers and family members in this Shot-gun start, Best Ball fun-filled outing.

-Masonry 201

The winter ravaged the face of the 5 outdoor fireplaces. We will rebuild the 30' long brick face on these fireplaces, with 5 arched openings.

CSIA CEUs: Technical 4.50; Codes & Standards 0.75; Health & Safety 0.75

NFI CEUs: Elective 6.00

Annual General Membership Meeting and Election of Officers

Friday 7/25/2014, and Saturday 7/26/2014

-Seminar I

The building of a Rocket Stove with a 20' heated bench

CSIA CEUs: Technical 5.00; Codes & Standards 0.50; Health & Safety 0.50

NFI CEUs: Elective 6.00

-Seminar II

Comparative chase building techniques. One will be done in a conventional fashion. The 2nd will be build using a new product from Skamol. Comparisons to include the length of time to completion and cost comparison.

CSIA CEUs: Technical 5.00; Codes & Standards 0.25; Health & Safety 0.25

NFI CEUs: Technical 5.75

-Seminar III

AW Perkins will demonstrate their newly refined "PterodacTILE" tile remover/setter, along with their smaller version the "Mini-T".

-Seminar IV

There will be applications of various smoke chamber repair products.

And of course there will be the traditional Friday night Top Burn Fire. On Saturday the Auction, followed by a night of music with the Soot Prints!

Also Jeanette Bobier is organizing fun activities for the kids, and Bill Bobier is preparing a scavenger hunt. The hunt will be in family or company groups, 2 or more group members.